

Connecticut Ancestry Society, Inc.

and

present

a FREE genealogy lecture

Writing Tips for Family Historians

with Frederick C. Hart, Jr., CG, FASG
on Saturday, November 9, 2013
from 10:00am to 12:00pm
at the Trumbull Library
33 Quality Street, Trumbull, CT

Connecticut Ancestry Society Genealogist Fred Hart will discuss the elements of good genealogical writing for a variety of purposes, with emphasis on smaller individual projects such as Connecticut Ancestry's 1790 Census project and short "one pager" articles for its journal. The talk should be of interest to all family historians, but especially for those who are thinking of contributing to these new Society projects.

Frederick C. Hart, Jr. is a professional genealogist, a Certified Genealogist, and Fellow of the American Society of Genealogists. He specializes in Fairfield County research and is contributing editor to our journal, Connecticut Ancestry.

Registration begins at 10:00 AM, lecture kicks off at 10:30 AM. Bring your own bag lunch and get to know, eat with and provide feedback to the board at 12:00PM.

Come join us for our November Meeting!
FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC